

In the context of the end of studies projects software engineering, I am looking for insisative which can offord a traineeship for 6 months counting the first date.

So obviouly, I chose your company where the activities sector matches my professional aspirations.

I will be honored to share with you my experiences and skills and as result I will improve my knowledge and competence when I will be included to your team as trainee and for sure .

when seeing my projects' versatility which I achieved in my career as student , freelancer and different traineeships where I spent in various interships (see CV), I will be happy to bring my acquired skills as well as my profound enthusiasm to work with you.

I thank you so much for your attention for this request of company. I will be available for all complementary information.

Waiting for your answer, thank you for aggregate, madam, sir, all my respect.